

PHILADELPHIA,

August 1890.

DEAR SIR:—

We learn that you have allowed the Brown Electric Protector Co. to cut your telephone wire and put on one of its Protectors, on the representation that the use of this device was approved by this Company.

We desire to say, that we never have so approved it; that we object to its use; that we believe such use to be fraught with trouble, and that we cannot be responsible in any way for interruptions of service while the instrument is on your wire.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CO. OF PHILADELPHIA.

Phila.

July 18. 1890

The Bell Telephone Co

Do not approve of the "Brown Electric Protector."

[RG104 E-1 Box 164]

[Abstract:] Do not approve of the "Brown Electric Protector".

Philadelphia, July 18 1890.

U.S. Mint

Dear Sirs.

We learn that you have allowed the Brown Electric Protector Co. to cut your telephone wire and put on one of its Protectors, on the representation that the use of this device was approved by this Company.

We desire to say, that we never have so approved it; that we object to its use; that we believe such use to be fraught with trouble, and that we cannot be responsible in any way for interruptions of service while the instrument is on your wire.

The Bell Telephone Co. of Philadelphia